Dear [Recipient Name],

Church is not just a place to pray rather it is a place where we are share our happiness and grief as a family. The purpose of these services is to bring the community under one roof and practice our religion together. Gathering in church every week ignites a feeling of unity and love between every member.

It has been a long time since I saw you and your family in the church services. We have been conducting services on different days and times to suit the schedule of every person. We also felt the absence of your kids a lot. These services are very important for your kids as it helps them learn their religion in a very playful way.

I was wondering if everything is fine with you. I was sure you might be having a hard time at work that stopped you from showing up in the last few weeks. The people of church are very loving and considerate about everyone attending the church. I hope the church and its people did not cause any offence to you and if that is the case, I can assure you that it was accidental.

I would love to meet you and discuss with you any reasons for not attending the church. Always remember church is your spiritual home and we are always waiting for people to come back and share their feelings with us.

Sincerely,

[Sender]
