Dear (recipient's name),

I hope this finds you well. I take great pleasure in writing this reference letter for Mr. Andrew Paul who I taught in Middle school and then in High school for two years. Now he's ready to set off to some Law college to pursue his great abilities and passion to become a law student after his great achievements here at Lincoln High School. I have known this child for a course of two years and through all this time, he has shown his debating, speaking and writing skills with an outstanding grasp of logic, maturity, clarity, and communication skills.

I am proud to have taught a student like Andrew and I highly recommend him as a student of your prestigious Law College. He has great potential to excel in law school and I'm sure that he will continue to show the same competence, excellence, and optimism that he showed us here. Please feel free to contact me on the given numbers for further information.

Thank you very much.

Yours Sincerely,
