Dear [Recipients Name],

Hope you are fine and enjoying the best health. I am the proprietor of M/S Juliet construction and I know Mr. David to me for more than five years. In fact, when I started the house construction business, he was my first tenant. I define him a very humble and a very gentleman. Although he was doing an ordinary job at that time but he remained very responsible in his payments and never delayed at any condition. He has a small family consisting of three persons. I have never heard any complaint from his neighbors. Rather, they always praise him because of his helping attitude. He is a family oriented person and passes most of his time with his family. He does not like noisy parties at home except few family gatherings on occasions. I found his home very neat and clean all the time during my surprise visits. Now he is settled financially than before and working in a good renown company. In my opinion, he is the best person that can have your property on lease and you would remain satisfactory throughout this contract.

Forwarding for information and further necessary action.

Sincerely,

Christopher Adam.

Proprietor, M/S Juliet Construction.
