

Apology Letter to Roommate for Cleaning

[Your Name]

Date:

Dear [Roommate],

It has been a couple of days since I got a chance to sit with you and have a chat. My final exams are just round the corner and so the routine has become really hectic. I have been attending extra lectures almost every day. The burden of assignments is really giving me a headache. I have been coming back late and going university early every day. Due to which we haven't really seen each other.

I know that it was my turn to clean up the room this week. I am very embarrassed to say that I forgot to do so. My routine has been so hectic that it completely got off my mind. It has been very kind of you to clean up the room, even though it wasn't your turn.

I will be freer just after this week. So, I have decided to take up the responsibility of cleaning the room properly and make up for my last turn as well. I will make sure I do not forget my turn next time so you do not get a chance to come up with complain against me. Thanks for understanding.

Sincerely

[Your Name]