Dear [Recipient Name],

I would like to apologize to you for not paying the rent for the last month. This is the first time the rent has been delayed. I switched to a new job and I haven't received my salary as yet. My last job has left me with a severe financial crunch.

I need your cooperation in regards to this matter. I am expecting to receive my salary in a weeks' time. And only then I will pay for the rent. You have been a wonderful landlord so far and I hope we have been good tenants as well. I would highly appreciate if you understand our problems and accept the delayed rent payment.

I assure this will not happen again in the future as my job is running smoothly now and my financial condition is improving as well.

Sincerely,

[Senders Name]
