Dear (recipient's name),

I am writing this letter in reference to the conference you participated during last week. I want to congratulate you on your successful presentation which was very enlightening to most of the listeners. As the topic was the need of new entrepreneurs in the present world, it was great to know the views of youth on the topic and I must say the things you discussed in your presentation were some key points that really need the attention of high officials. I am glad that you discussed them in detail. Listening to the youth like you restores my belief in the capability of our talented new generation. You must never give up and continue with these ideas of yours. You are a talented young individual with an enlightened mindset. I hope that you find even more and better opportunities in future.

Thank you very much. Good wishes.

Yours Sincerely,
